

CHANNELING GROUPS: PHONE OR IN PERSON

Vywamus:

Perhaps you think you know who you are. "I am a father/mother, employee/ employer, friend, caring [person]," etc. But these descriptions do not begin to touch the truth, the depth of who you really are. This journey called life is about finding out who you truly are and living up to your potential. Along the way you may find out about aspects of yourself that you do not like. But if you have the courage to face those aspects, you will find that they are illusory; that they are not the real you. But you can only find this out if you are willing to see those aspects. As long as you pretend to be something/someone who you are not, you cannot be who you truly are. Your courage will be amply rewarded. Come, join the journey! You will be amply rewarded.
